

DOCUMENTARY SCRIPT

- Scene 1: It's a joyful moment here at the NYSC Permanent Orientation Camp, Obubra, Cross River State as Staff, SAED Facilitators and Prospective Corps Members prepares to commence the SAED rally to sensitize the camp community on the importance and benefits of the SAED initiative.
- Scene 2: While addressing the crowd at the Capitol, the state coordinator, Mrs. Oyenuga Mojisola Joke admonished corps members saying:
- Scene 3: In an earlier interview, the Assistant Director in-charge of SAED, Mr. Mordi Onochie Christopher had said:
- Scene 4: In a similar fashion, the Assistant Chief Inspector, Mrs. Blessing Bisong, advised corps members saying:
- Scene 5: During an earlier interview, some facilitators encouraged corps members saying:
- Scene 6: Some prospective Corps Members had expressed their excitement and optimism about the SAED program.
1. I am _____, I am happy about the SAED program and I am hoping to acquire a skill that will empower me to be self-reliant and resourceful.
 2. I am _____, I am very grateful to the NYSC for initiative the SAED program. I believe that through the opportunities provided us, I will acquire necessary skills that will aid my employment.
 3. I am _____, the SAED program is a wonderful initiative. I am hoping to leverage the opportunities provided us here to equip myself with the skills needed to build my own business and provide employment opportunities for others.